

Volunteer Opportunities

Mentoring—Every woman in CWJC program is matched with a trained mentor to serve as her personal support and encouragement source. Mentors attend a training session and then matched to a CWJC participant. Written covenants are used to outline the boundaries of these relationships. (For more information about mentoring go to the Resources Web page and download the "Mentors Handbook.")

Second Chance—Volunteers are needed to help with benevolence applications and interviews. Second Chance Shop needs people who can share the Gospel with each client.

Got Food? Pantry—Volunteers are needed to help keep shelves stacked and food rotated.

Prayer—A team of people is needed to pray for MCCS, its clients, and CWJC participants daily. (For a daily prayer plan please visit the Resources Web page.)

If you can help with any of these needs, please contact Linda Henry at (256) 878-3533.
